

Les Dames d'Escoffier New York Invites You To -

An Educational Italian Culinary Arts Trip to Sicily, Italy

With the May-Mei Italian Culinary Academy

In Cooperation with the Italian Culinary Foundation

April 15 to April 22, 2018
8 days / 7 nights at the 5-Star
Grand Hotel Villa Igea Palermo

HOSTED AND ARRANGED BY DAME MARISA MAY-METALLI and TONY MAY with
Celebrated Sicilian Celebrity Chef, Instructor PEPPE GIUFFRE'

This is the first special educational trip and tour of Sicilian food and wine producers arranged by New York Dame Marisa May-Metalli and her father Tony May, former owner of the Rainbow Room and San Domenico NY for members of Les Dames d'Escoffier to an eight-day trip including five morning cooking classes with daily excursions.

Five mornings we will participate in cooking classes and have lunch.
Each afternoon we will visit the surrounding Sicilian villages and towns, going to local markets and tasting
Artisan cheeses, pasta, breads, olive oil, and wines.

Each evening we will dine at a unique restaurant in and around Palermo.
One day we will board a traditional fishing boat off the coast of Sicily and feast on a meal cooked by the fisherman.

ALL THIS - AND MORE SURPRISES - WILL HAPPEN THROUGHOUT THE WEEK

You don't need to have professional knife skills; you only need to know how to hold a knife! Bring a chef knife and a paring knife encased in a plastic knife-guard (inside your checked luggage) plus an apron and comfortable walking shoes for touring and working in the kitchen.

The PRICE is "all inclusive" from the moment of arrival until departure.
Double Occupancy: $3,142.00 USD / Single Occupancy: $3,562.00 USD
Includes: Ground Transportation, 7 nights at the 5-Star Grand Hotel Villa Igjea Hotel, breakfast, lunch, and dinner, plus all outings. (Airfare is not included.)
