New York Les Dames d'Escoffier and LUPEC NYC Raise a Glass and Funds for Scholarships

New York, NY...For Immediate Release - Les Dames d'Escoffier New York \(LDNY\)—founding and largest chapter of Les Dames d'Escoffier International and LUPEC NYC—

Meaghan Dorman of The Raines Law and Lantern's Keep

Ladies United for the Preservation of Endangered Cocktails—joined together for a night of cocktails and revelry at New York's hot spot Macao Trading Co., to raise money for LDNY's scholarship fund. At the bar were LUPEC'S own Meaghan Dorman of The Raines Law and Lantern's Keep, and Lucinda Lynn Sterling of Middle Branch and Little Branch, serving up signature cocktails created with Macchu Pisco, Bootlegger 21 New York Vodka, Bulleit Bourbon and Combier Liqueur. Fine red and white wines were generously poured, courtesy of Wines of North Greece. Celebrity bar backs assisting were Jesse Harris of Raines Law Room and Attaboy, and Justin Noel of 1534.

Two of the evening's cocktails featured were Meaghan Dorman's Hibiscus Highball, made with Bootlegger 21 and served tall with lime juice, wild hibiscus flower, topped with ginger beer, and Lucinda Sterling's Delicate Beauty: Macchu Pisco shaken with lemon juice, Combier and wild hibiscus flower, served over crushed ice with absinthe.

The evening would not have been a success without the communication and organizational support of Francine Cohen, www.insidefandb.com Editor in Chief and LUPEC board member.

LUPEC NYC is the NY chapter of a national organization committed to promoting women in the spirits industry while raising funds for women's charities. LUPEC NYC is a spirited society of select women in the beer, wine and spirits industry. The chapter is dedicated to preserving endangered cocktails while presenting opportunities for the personal and professional growth of its members and giving back to the community with an emphasis on organizations that focus on women's issues. As pioneers in their field, LUPEC NYC ladies represent the best and the brightest in their chosen career path.

Les Dames d'Escoffier New York is an invitational volunteer organization comprised of accomplished women in the fine food, beverage and hospitality industry. Its primary mission is to inspire, empower and mentor young women seeking careers in the culinary and hospitality professions. Scholarships are awarded annually and made possible through sponsor support, fundraising activities, events and programs.
